CIVIL WAR LETTERS

Submitted by MR. C. E. BUSH

We wish to acknowledge our appreciation to Society Member, Mr. C. E. Bush, of Zachariah, Lee County, Kentucky, for sharing with us the two historic letters written from the battlefield during the Civil War.

Words of Mr. Bush: I am enclosing copies of two letters written by: Elijah Washington Baker, oldest brother of my Grandmother, Dolly Baker Townsend. In my opinion this letter is most significant and interesting because of the rare occasion to get the writers story direct from the Battlefield. Especially if the writer is a soldier. He used the Old English of the era, but he was a brilliant young man. He was smart enough to recognize the situation for what it was and had the courage to face it unafraid. I have five of his letters written home, in all of them he expressed a desire to go home and see his family, a young wife and three kids, and always he qualified his yearning with... "If I live".

Dalton, Georgia
December 15th, 1863

Mr. Samuel Baker
Bakersville, Mitchell Co., N. C.

Dear Father, I again write you a line as I did not have time to write you all the news relative to our condition and position. I will write you again. We arrived at Dalton and found our Reg and all was well with us though Bragg had been driven from the Missionary Ridge. I think it was bad management previous of that time Longstreet had gowm to Knoxville with his Armeey and was beseegin the place, also Buckner was sent with his Division increasing those Troops out. They was moved in Plaine view of the Yankeys which was the caus of bringing o the fight in absence of our Troops. The contest raged fiercest upon the wright in the beginning and our men sustained theire selfs against asualts and whiped the Enemy out but our men was sent there then they marched heavy colums and charged the left But failed. Then they hurled a tremendous force against the left and drove Back our men. It only was done by 2 Brigades faltering. Though the Confederate Backed they did not sustain no great loss, 6000 will cover the whole. They confess a loss of 40,000. When they got they way open 50,000 went towards Knoxville and 30,000 toward Virginia to re-inforce Meade.

Our Cavalry is just from Missionary Ridge and there is no Yankeys hardly (?) watching for Claiborne whipping them at Ringold and turned them an other way. So I can't say what will be our next move. Eli Jarrett was wounded and has gone home I expect or will go. We only lost 2 wounded in the fight.

I want you to write how things stand in N. C., exact time and about home. I want you to let me no all the news of that kind.

Father reade this to my wife and tell her to do the best she can. I am very well We are doing well, Getting plenty to eat.

Lt. AMC Prichard sends his best.

Best respects to you.

Signed: E. W. Baker

E. W. Baker, Captain Confederate Army
Camp near Marietta
June 11th 1864

Mr. R. F. Baker

Dear Brother, I trust to pen you a few lines which leaves me all right. I returned or arrived at my command upon the 3rd day after I left home, and all was right. I found our Armeiy in line of Battle and our Regiment under fire. I had to doge about to keep from being killed in getting in and going up to the Company. I will tell you we have been under fire and in sight of the Yankey ever since I returned. Hard skirmishing has been going on over one month.

I found our Armeiy at New Hope Church 15 miles West of heare, there the Feds made several charges but was hansomley repulsed. Their loss was 3000 in the charge against Hood, and we buried 1100 off them in the charge before Clabern. They have lost a grate succesively (sic) charged one place, thoe our Brigade charged at Resacah and they run before we got in 600 yds.

We moved 4 miles to the wright from New Hope. threw up rifle pits, then 3 miles do 6 do then 10 do which gave us 23 miles march from left to right. We now are formed and well fortifyed across the Rail road 5 miles West of Marietts. We are formed upon the crest of a hill in rear of a large farme which gives us a grand synopsis of the field in front. Slight skirmish going on in front. We can se the feds and se our men and them fighting. Though the grate battle, nor any part of it, has not come of yet. We thought it would commenced last night or this morning and way though it may begine in one minute. We are in 2 miles of their main force so let them come so they come in front. Sherman has done his pretitest to flank us and has failed as yet. Prisoners say he is bound to keep near the road on account of his mules being so por. They ran up the "traine" (sic) yesterday in sight of us and whistled big. I tell you our position is all right. Our division, I think, is good to whip a Corps. We have got good works this being the 3rd fortify in, and they never will get to fight us any way elce. It is sayd they have 130,000. We have near 100,000 including Brown's and Pets (Pettus).

Bob there will be the hardest cattle fought of the War heare some one of these days. Our men is in good fighting trim and they long for the contest. We do not have a single desertion now. The Yankeys occasionally desert and come over to us, they are aprehensive and grately fear the contest. They are not to be blamed for we will noe (know) them. First light when they come.. weathers wet. Bob I had a proposition for promotion since I came back. DR is very puny now. Bob I will say you must get a proper certificate and send up and then all will be right. Bob wright often and tell me all about how you are getting along.

Tell the children Pap wants to se them bad enough but he can't now, but for them to be good and mind grand ma and grand pap until I come home, that if I live I will come and se them this Winter.

Pap I have no news more or less than this I do not think of anything more or less than whipping the Yanks. The 29th has arrived amd Co is 108 strong. Polks' Corps is heare from Missipi.

Pap take good care of your self and if you go to Mitchel look sharp. I shall go to that Country if I live untill Fall.

Dr. AMC Prichard sends his respects to you. We only have 20 or 21 men in our Co now. I am acting as ordley as ever all wright. Old Stewart has lost his fun. Write to me. I love to hear from home. Eli is well--- says he wishes you all well.
Crops looks fine every where.

E. W. Baker
Co. 183 58th N. C. Reg.

The foregoing letter from Elijah Washington "Wash" Baker to his brother, Robert Franklin, was the last word received from him. He was killed in battle shortly after this letter was written. The great battle he anticipated in his letter occurred on June 27, 1864 when Sherman launched his offensive against the Confederate entrenchment at Kennesaw Mountains, commanded by Joseph E. Johnston. The attack began at 8:00 A. M. with a one hour bombardment from 140 cannon. After which he hurled his entire Army of 112,879 men against Johnston's 62,000. It ended in defeat for Sherman whose men were slaughtered, but a small bridgehead was established on their right flank, and once again Johnston slipped away in the night, to a previously prepared position just North of the Chattahoochee River, the first defense of Atlanta. From June 1, 1864 to September 1, 1864 the losses were: 40,687 for the North and 34,979 for the South.

This is the fifth of a series of letters of letters that were preserved from E. W. from the War Zone. In his letter dated December 15, 1863, from Dalton, Georgia, he described the battles for Chattanooga, his eye witness of these historic events are well told from a man under fire, in Field Headquarters, and dipping his pen in a bottle of ink. He gave names of Commanders, entrenchment positions, weather conditions, and losses that correspond with the best written history of the Civil War; yet his last letter was written 125 years ago. Also, he was a well educated man for that date in history. His spelling and use of words reflect the old English Ancestry of his Mother's people, who settled in Randolph County, North Carolina in 1745.

I tried to copy his letter verbatim, but it is difficult to translate from old faded copies. It is truly a "Labor of Love" to leave his words to future generations as someone's loving hands and thoughtful nature guarded these old letters. His mother brought them to Kentucky from Greenville, South Carolina where they had to flee after the War.
